F.B Mondial HPS 125 2020

The FB Mondial HPS may only be a 125cc but makes many bigger bikes look distinctively average in comparison

£3,299 ^{+OTR}
from £64.87 p/m

The design of the HPS 125 is the perfect fusion of the classic F.B.Mondial characteristics and the best technologic soul of the 125cc DOHC, with electronic injection and liquid cooling. The double rear shock absorbers and upside-down front forks blend perfectly the past and the present, and thanks to the adjustable suspension are able to grant the maximum comfort in both slow city traffic and fast trips to the countryside. The attention to detail and careful study allow you to enjoy the sights from a comfortable riding position, riding a motorcycle with a classic flavor whilst enjoying the security and the reliability given by modern technology.
